COAL MINERS DEFY U. S. STRIKE INJUNCTION

PERSHING REDUCES BAKER'S FIGURES ON STANDING ARMY

TELLS MILITARY COMMITTEE PERSONNEL OF 300,000 MEN IS SUFFICIENT.

TRAIN CITIZENS

Urges Universal Drill To Keep Up Reserve To Standing Force.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Oct. 31.—Disagreeing with war department recommendations for a permanent army of 300,000 men, Gen. John J. Pershing today told a joint meeting of the senate and house military committees he thought the number could be placed at an outside figure of 275,000 to 300,000, and possibly less.

"The cost of maintaining a large standing army, in his opinion, would make it impracticable to set the figure any higher," he said.

The general said the regular army should be sufficient to protect the nation against sudden attack and to meet America's international obligations both on the American continent and elsewhere and that this should be backed by a "trained citizen reserve."

Urges Universal Training
General Pershing who appeared at a special session of the committees today, said universal military training was essential to prepare the citizen reserve.

"Military training makes better citizens," he declared. "It benefits the individual by increasing his physique, it broadens their view of life."

With universal service established, he continued, the military establishment could be made up first of a small number of regulars—"sufficient for expeditionary forces and for the maintenance of the American continent"—and to garrison out-lying possessions—which would be backed up by a citizen reserve.

Discusses Army Bills
General Pershing discussed in detail the military organization bills pending before congress.

"In our experience in France," he said, "it became evident that a transport corps to include tanks, heavy personnel—rails, water, and highway, should be maintained."

"The experience with the air service makes it certain that this will be an element of increasing importance in warfare. America should not be allowed to lag behind other countries."

He said he would be well to consolidate air forces, military, naval and commercial under a single head as an assistance to progress of the war.

The general also urged retention of a tank corps. He also said the nurse corps deserved recognition and he urged its service during the war.

"It is necessary in time of war that the decision as to organization of corps and service be left to the general," he said, and he believed the authority should be left to him in time of peace.

Provisions of the senate bill, General Pershing created "too many general officers."

"Our traditions call for fewer men of these ranks," he said.

He said he believed the authority should be left to him in time of peace.

POLICE TO INSTALL NEW SIGNAL SYSTEM; PLAN IS ANNOUNCED

With the appropriation by the council of $6,000 for the installation of a signal system and the purchase of a new combination police patrol and fire alarm, Janesville's police department gives promise of soon being one of the best equipped departments in the state.

The inadequacy of the present signal system and the need of a motor ambulance have long been recognized by the council as two defects needing remedy with the growth of the city.

The proposed locations for the new signal boxes and alarms were announced today by Chief Thomas Peterson who is working out plans for the installation. Five combination flash light and bell alarms and 15 call boxes or police telephones will be installed, according to the proposed plans, with the central station located at police headquarters.

Bell-Light to be Used
The bell-light, which will doubtless be used as a police alarm, combines in one unit the marine flash light with a 10-inch bell metal gong, the gong being employed for calling out the police by means of a bell mounted on a pole, building, or independent pedestal controlled from the police station. A metal shade is used to intensify the lamp rays for day-light service.

It is proposed to install five of these signals at the following points: near the Main street and corner of South Bluff and East Milwaukee streets; corner of Milwaukee and High streets; corner of Milwaukee and River streets; corner of College and Main streets; and corner of South Bluff and East Milwaukee streets.

Phones to be Installed
When the light is flashed or the gong rung, a patrolman on his beat will go to one of the 15 telephones which it is proposed to install, and call headquarters. Five of the 15 telephones will be located on all beats throughout the business district. The proposed locations are: Northwest corner depot; St. Paul depot; Five points; corner of Milwaukee and Academy streets; corner of Milwaukee and Jackson streets; corner of Dodge and Franklin streets; corner of Wall and Franklin streets; west end of Milwaukee street; corner of Milwaukee and Milwaukee streets; corner of North Main and Prospect avenue; corner of South Main and St. Lawrence avenue; corner of Court and South Main streets; corner of First and North Bluff streets; corner of Division and East Milwaukee streets; and corner of Pleasant and River streets.

The phone boxes will also contain a lever which the patrolman will pull each hour while on his beat and which will be pulled every 15 minutes during the day-time. The throwing of the lever records the time, date, and number of the box pulled. This is done to prevent a policeman from calling the patrolman, the ambulance, or to talk with the desk sergeant. He will place a pencil mark on a certain card and pull the lever.

The boxes may be opened by two different types of keys. Each patrolman will be issued a key which will number of the second type will be distributed to responsible citizens. The citizen's key differs from the patrolman's key in that it is numbered and cannot be removed from the box after it has been opened only by an officer. This is done to prevent the citizen from the privilege of record of the citizen's keys is kept at headquarters.

GOMPERS TO CONFER WITH PALMER ON GOVERNMENT COURT ORDER.

Railroad Brotherhoods Give Powerful Support To Union's Policy.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, Oct. 31.—Officials of the American Federation of Labor protested today against the action of the government in obtaining an injunction in the coal strike.

Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, did not accompany the delegation but an engagement was made for him to see Attorney General Clegg later in the day.

The federation officials say the injunctions violated the rights of union labor and indicated that the coal miners would have their support in any fight brought to dissolve the injunctions.

Mr. Palmer reiterated that the government was proceeding solely against one union, which he declared, was trying to violate the law. He said the right to strike was not involved.

Government Is Firm
It is understood that there will be no change in the policy of the government as a result of the representations of the union men.

Representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods, including Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the conductors, and L. E. Shepherd, president of the conductors, accompanied the delegation. Their presence was taken as indicating that although not affiliated with the federation, the brotherhoods would give their powerful support to any action union labor might take.

Peace Conference
TO END BY DECEMBER
Paris, Oct. 31.—The end of November may see the close of the Paris peace conference, which has negotiated the peace treaties with Germany and Austria.

Unless the conference can speedily reach an agreement with Rumania and compel it to accept the terms of the Hungarian affairs, there seems little chance that a treaty can be negotiated with Hungary at present, in which case the conference will close without making that treaty.

The Adriatic question will not necessarily prolong the life of the conference. There is no disposition among many of the peace delegates to drag out the conference much longer for the discussion of the European political situations involved in the Rumanian and Italian difficulties.

December 1 now is looked on as the latest probable date for the adjournment of the conference. Indications are that the Bulgarian treaty will be signed within a week or ten days.

Spooks Furnish Thrills at Party For Lutherans

Scientists have for some time been agreed that ghosts are best seen when it is raining. Members of the First Lutheran Young People's society are also agreed today that spirits were much in evidence last night.

At 8 o'clock the young people met at the church. Sheeted ghosts with shadowy fingers beckoned them into automobiles. Through the rain and mud, they rode and rode, until at a signal the cavalcade halted, at the home of Robert Gessland, State auditor.

Then, directed by Miss Mable Keesey, the party cautiously approached the tobacco shed, on into the stripping room, with only a rope for support. Rumping on beds, receiving pinches from the spirits, bluffs from the witches' brooms, and water sprayed from the mouths of demons, the reception into spookdom, thrillingly real.

Wet, sheets were brushed into giving a clammy effect. Grabbing blown bladders, stumbling onto milk pails, those who would hobnob with demons screamed on, interrupted only by the clanking chains of the "tormentors."

Before leaving the ghost kingdom, the mangled remains of poor pussy had to be passed around. All the fairly world still remained to put over a splendid program with readings pertaining to the season. Halloween stunts were then tried out. Kenneth Carson, with the skill of Annette Kellerman, won the prize for apple ducking.

Each guest was in costume. All the fairies, witches, and goblins, held sway with old women, clowns and hard-time characters.

Miss Alvina Jacobson as an old woman with frizzes was given the prize. At a late hour lunch was served.

The committee in charge of the party was made up of the Misses Mable Keesey and Zillah Heisig, Harry Anderson, and Orvin Johnson.

COURT ORDER RESTRAINING UNION ACTIVITIES CANNOT AVERT GENERAL WALKOUT AT MIDNIGHT SAYS LEWIS

FEDERAL ACTION ONLY COMPLICATES PROBLEMS INVOLVED IN CONTROVERSY, DECLARES PRESIDENT OF WORKERS, AFTER BEING SERVED BY WRIT.

(By Associated Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 31.—A temporary injunction restraining all strike activities of the United Mine Workers of America was issued in the federal district court here today on application of the United States government.

The injunction cannot avert the strike of bituminous coal miners set for midnight tonight according to John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers. Lewis' pronouncement came shortly after he had been served with a writ stopping strike activities at union headquarters here.

Lewis dictated the following statement: "I regard the issuance of this injunction as the most sweeping abrogation of the rights of citizens guaranteed under the constitution and defined by statutory law, that has ever been issued by any federal court. This instrument will not avert the strike of bituminous mine workers and will not settle the strike after it occurs. The injunction only complicates to a further degree the problems involved in an adjustment of the controversy."

Anderson Signs Order.
Judge A. B. Anderson signed the order on the showing set forth by C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general, that a national disaster was impending and that the government would only inflame them. The question involved now is whether working men and women have the right to strike when they think they have cause to do so.

Assuming a defiant attitude toward the government's move, Frank G. Hughes, president of the mines' scale committee and president of the Illinois district, declared today that the "strike had developed into a general strike of the miners' strike," and that it "was an attempt to enslave the working men and women of the country."

Service Had on Lewis
Service was had on Lewis, Green and several other union officials and members of the executive board at union headquarters a few minutes before noon. The order was signed by Judge Anderson after Lewis signed the order.

In presenting the petition Judge Ames made it clear that the order would involve the general right of workers to organize or quit work. He said it would have no bearing on other industries and merely involved the right of the government to restrict or destroy the supply of food and fuel.

It rests," he added, "on the broad general powers of the government to enforce its laws and to protect its people against disaster." Under the order, the union officers should be ordered to withdraw strike orders already issued and are forbidden to send out any other orders, written or oral, tending to prevent the strike or to make it effective. They are restrained from sending any "messages of encouragement or exhortation" or from making any union funds as strike benefits.

House Pledges Support
Washington, Oct. 31.—By an overwhelming vote the house today adopted the senate resolution pledging support to the "national administration and all others in authority" and appointed the senate industrial emergency.

The president's executive order follows: "Whereas, the United States fuel administrator, acting under the authority of an executive order issued by me dated the 23rd of August, 1919, has been petitioned by the coal miners' union to withdraw strike orders already issued and are forbidden to send out any other orders, written or oral, tending to prevent the strike or to make it effective. They are restrained from sending any 'messages of encouragement or exhortation' or from making any union funds as strike benefits."

War Time Rules Restored
Washington, Oct. 31.—President Wilson, president of the United States of America, acting under duty of the aforesaid act of congress approved August 10, 1919, do hereby revoke and annul said orders of August 31, 1919, and February 20, 1917, to the extent necessary to restore all of the said rules, regulations, orders and proclamations therein suspended concerning:

PRINTING ON A "ROUND PRESS"

"It was watching the printing press at the newspaper office today, Dad, and I could not see any type."

"Was it a rotary press?"

"Well, it had a lot of rollers, rolls of paper, and it ran awful fast. And folded newspapers came out ready for the carrier boys!"

"That is a rotary web perfecting press, sonny—such as most newspapers of more than 4,000 circulation use now."

"No—stereotyped plates of the pages. Instead, it's an interesting invention, and without it we couldn't have newspapers of half a million circulation a day. Do you remember the printing press in the little office in granddaddy's town?"

Well, that was the small newspaper press, because the type forms of the pages are placed on a flat bed and slide back and forth under a platen cylinder. From this cylinder, the paper comes out in a continuous sheet. It's slow, because it is fed by hand, and the sheets must be run through again to be printed on the other side.

"But, the modern rotary press, you see from this diagram, has no flat bed. Instead, stereotyped plates of the various rolls and the paper runs in a wide ribbon, perhaps half a mile long, from a paper roll. After running through a set of rollers, which print other pages, it is printed on both sides. Then it joins another ribbon from other rolls, which print other pages, and passes into the folder to be cut and folded into newspapers."

"It is a rotary because every moving part revolves at the same rate. ### Junior Boys at "Y" to Have Halloween Social

An old-time Halloween social will be held at the "Y" tonight for the junior boys of the boys' division. It is expected that 60 boys will be in attendance at the affair. Those present will have the opportunity of enjoying all the events of Halloween. Several new "stunts" are to be "pulled off." It is understood. Bobbing for apples and the usual activities of the season will be carried out. A program, which will start at 7:30, has been arranged. The evening's entertainment will be in charge of A. C. Preston, boys' secretary.

High School Notes

Halloween, as it is celebrated by the Scotch peasants, was explained by John Arbuthnot this morning when he read Robert Burns' poem, "Halloween," in dialect. Later he explained the various lines. He is well acquainted with the Scotch dialect and has before presented Burns' poems to the students.

Miss Ona Andrews will spend the week end at her home in Darlington.

James True is making hat shelves in the lower hall, which will be placed over the hooks.

Miss Kimball, supervisor of music in Chicago, is visiting the grade schools today with Miss Florence Snyder, helping her introduce the new music books which have recently been installed.

Testing Golden Glow and Silver King corn by the rag doll, Golden and Silver, was well demonstrated by Ross Van Galder, Homer Casey, and Willard McDermott this morning in the sophomore agriculture class.

Ten ears of corn were used for each tester, the kernels which were used being chosen from the butt, middle, and tip of the ears. At the close of the demonstration the sophomores asked questions of the team.

How to Earn Money

Outside of School

A BUSINESS THAT IS FUN
By Marie Scoville
"Mr. Vorse East Green" street, said she never gave so successful a luncheon as when she entertained the Vassar Society for an "Autumn" luncheon on Tuesday. The evening's entertainment will be in charge of A. C. Preston, boys' secretary.

"Let me show you what I can do. I have samples of my work and appropriate ideas for every kind of tea or luncheon the year 'round. Phone me and I will come to talk your next party over. Price list enclosed."

Helen is a saleswoman. She knew how to sell her talents. Always clever at school with her water colors and appropriate ideas for every kind of tea or luncheon the year 'round. Phone me and I will come to talk your next party over. Price list enclosed."

For the putting of simple place-cards and the making of shades in various hues of crepe paper petals she charged 10 cents apiece. The hostess furnished material and ideas or guests could paint place-cards and enclosing a sample of her work. This small beginning led to the adding of shade, favors, etc., up to today. Helen at 17 and a senior in high school, has a substantial weekly income and two girls friends to help all her orders.

GAZETTE NEWSIES TO HAVE "Y" PRIVILEGES

A movement has been started in which it is planned that the newsboys, carriers and sellers of the Gazette, will become members of the local Y. M. C. A. Through the courtesy of A. C. Preston, boys' secretary, and C. W. Peagin, manager of the circulation department of the Gazette, such a plan has been made possible.

It is expected that organization will be completed at a dinner to be held at the "Y" Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Members of the Gazette carrier and sales force will be in attendance at that time. It is planned to have one evening each week at which time these boys, most of whom have heretofore been unable to enjoy the privileges of the "Y," will have a chance to use the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A.

SAMSON EMPLOYEES TO HAVE HARD TIME PARTY

It was announced at the welfare office of the Samson Tractor company this morning that plans are being arranged for a Hard Times party to be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 6. It is to be an informal affair. Extra features for an unusually enjoyable evening are planned. Novel forms of entertainment and unlooked for surprises will be "pulled off" at various intervals during the evening. Close to 1,000 invitations will be extended to all employees, including those of the Janesville Machine company, and the Dupont Engineering company. The affair is to be for Samson employees only.

D. A. R. Plan Hawaiian Program for November 11

A Hawaiian program is being planned for the November meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Allen P. Lovejoy, Nov. 11.

Mrs. John Rexford is in charge of the program. A number of high school girls are to appear in Hawaiian parts.

SOME FOLKS ARE DISAPPOINTED

They read or they hear about Jiffy-Jell desserts. They want these real-fruit dainties, but they get something else.

The trouble lies in a like-sounding name. Be careful. The name is Jiffy-Jell.

Jiffy-Jell is the only dessert with real-fruit flavors in liquid form in glass.

The fruit is crushed, then the juice is condensed and sealed in glass vials. There is a bottle in each Jiffy-Jell package.

So Jiffy-Jell is real-fruit dessert, healthful and delightful. It supplies the fruit which everyone needs daily. It brings you fruit at trifling cost in winter.

But you will miss that bottle of fruit-juice essence if you get something else.

MILK PRODUCERS RAISE $1,500 FOR DEFENSE FUND

Word was received here this morning by officers of the Janesville Milk Producers' association that the eight officials of the Illinois Milk Producers' association were found not guilty of conspiracy to arbitrarily fix Chicago's milk prices.

The members of the association who were acquitted were Charles H. Potter, chairman of the milk board; Willis J. Kittle, secretary of the milk board; Robert M. Omarman, chairman of the campaign committee; and Frank H. Reese, treasurer of the organization.

Members of the local association have been carrying on a campaign for the past two weeks, the purpose of which was to raise funds for the defense of the above mentioned officers. At a meeting held last evening at which time reports were heard from the solicitors that have been active in raising the funds, it was announced that although there were seven solicitors to be heard from, it was estimated that $1,500 had been secured. The fund obtained by the local organization will be forwarded to Chicago to help defray expenses contracted during the recent trial.

HARD TIMES PARTY IS GREAT SUCCESS

Luxurious costumes, real dance music, attractive decorations, and an abundance of cider, doughnuts, apples and pumpkin pie combined to make the Lakota club's annual Hard Times party at Terpsichorean hall and in the club-rooms last night the greatest success of any ever given by the club. Eighty couples took part in the fun which began at 8:30 and continued until 1 o'clock.

While girls were attired in aprons and gingham dresses, members of the club were outfitted in all kinds of old clothing ranging from overalls to dilapidated stove-pipe hats.

Although no prizes were awarded, Dick Saxby might have carried off first for being the hardest looking man on the floor. Nevada McCarty, with a wrecked sweater; Bill Langdon and George Sherman, with overalls and red bandanas; and Bradley Conrad with a pitiful looking Palm Beach suit, were among the meanest looking characters.

Howard Oltner, in a horrible attempt to appear at his best in a white vest; George Bennett, with huge patches on his suit; and "Doc" Richards with an equally unattractive outfit, all scored hits.

Refreshments served at 11 o'clock were followed by Roy Ryan in one of his famous clog dances.

Success of the affair is due to Bo-tious Kelly, Bert Rutter, Joe Denning and other members of the committee in charge.

Inmates of Blind Men's Home Ask Higher Wages

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—Inmates of the Pennsylvania working home for blind men have presented demands for higher wages and threatened to strike next week unless they are granted. According to the blind men, who make brooms, chairs and cane work, there has been comparatively little raise in wages. They have formed an organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Militia Is Reorganized.

week that Miss Dalton had made a contract with Comstock and Gest to play the leading feminine role in "Aphrodite" has aroused great interest among the motion picture friends of the young lady, for it is her first venture on the legitimate stage since her entrance into pictures. She went to New York last spring to continue her screen work for Thomas H. Ince and it is said after Morris Gest saw her it suddenly occurred to him that she had all the attributes to make an ideal Aphrodite. Not only mental qualifications, but the necessary physical charm. It is claimed by the management that she is the only woman in America, aside from Mary Garden, fitted to impersonate the character. They have searched almost three years for the type.

When Miss Dalton had been in New York but a few weeks in an interview she confessed her longing to return to the stage and the hope that such an opportunity would arise. She has a long-time contract with Famous Players-Lasky which will be "My ideal man is a clean-cut American. He must be well educated. I demand of him that he be faultlessly groomed at all times. He must be dark, tall, and willing to talk to anyone. I could not stand a man who was what we on the screen call 'Upstage.' It does not make any difference to me whether he has a fortune or not. I think that I would rather he did not have a lot of money. Of course I would expect him to provide a comfortable home, and to be a considerate husband and father, but to me money is not essential to happiness. Above all, my ideal man must be clean-mouthed. I hate a man who swears."

The usual heated arguments followed, but it all resulted in a new contract and the resumption of studio work by the star.

THE COW PUNCHER

BY ROBERT J. C. STEAD
Author of "Kitcheners and Other Poems"

"I know, Dave." She had to hold herself in check lest the words she uttered would shape words of endearing sympathy in her mind, should find utterance in speech. "I know, Dave," she said, "the way you're looking at me, I'm sure in your own mind whether you ever really loved Irene Hardy. Because if you loved Irene a week ago you love her tonight."

"No. Other impulses may be, but not love. Love can no more turn to hate than sunlight can turn to darkness. Believe me, Dave, if you had known me as I am now, you would have loved me as I am now. Love beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeeth all things, endureth all things."

"It says all things," Dave was silent for some time. When he spoke again she caught a different sound in his voice—a tone as though his soul in those few moments had gone through a lifetime of experience.

"Edith," he said, "when you repeated those words I knew you had something that I have not. I knew it, not by the words but by the way you said them. You made me know that in your life, if you loved, you would be ready to endure all things. Tell me, Edith, how may this thing be done?"

"She trembled with delight at the new tone in his voice, for she knew that for him life would never again be the empty, flippant, selfish, irresponsible thing which in the past he had called life."

"In your case," she said, "the course is simple. It is just a case of forgiving."

"I gazed for a time into the street, while thoughts of bitterness and revenge fought for domination of his mind. 'Edith,' he said, at length, 'must I forgive?'"

"Do not say you must," she answered. "I merely say if you are wise you will. Nothing, it seems to me, is so much misunderstood as forgiveness. The one who is forgiven may merely escape punishment, but the one who forgives experiences a positive spiritual expansion."

"Is that Christianity?" he ventured.

"It is one side of Christianity. The other side is service. If you are willing to forgive and ready to serve, don't think you need worry much over the details of your creed. Creeds after all, are not expressed in words but in lives. When you know how a man lives you know what he believes."

"Suppose I forgive—what then?"

"Service. You are needed right now, Dave—forgive my frankness—your country needs you right now. You must dismiss this grievance from your mind, at least dismiss your resentment over it, and then place yourself at the disposal of your country."

"That is what I had been thinking of," he said. "At least that is what I was thinking of. I don't think my motives were as high as you would make them. But the war can't last. It is unbelievable."

"I'm not so sure," she answered gravely. "Of course I know nothing about Germany. But I do know something about our own people. I know how selfish and individualistic and sordid and money-grabbing we have been; how slothful and incompetent and self-satisfied we have been; and I fear it will take a long war and sacrifices and tragedies all together beyond our present imagination to make us unselfish and public-spirited and clean, and generous."

"I am not worrying about the defeat of Germany. If our civilization is better than that of Germany we shall win, ultimately, and if our civilization is worse than that of Germany we shall deserve to be defeated."

"But I rather think that neither of the alternatives will be the result. I rather think that the test of war will show that if our civilization is German civilization which are better than theirs, and that the good elements will survive and form the basis of a new civilization better than either."

"If that is so," Dave replied, "if this war is but the working of immutable law which proposes to put all the forces of civilization to the supreme test and retain only those which are justifiable by the test, why should I—or anyone else—fight? And," he added, as an afterthought, "what about that principle of forgiveness?"

"We must fight," she answered, "because it is the law that we must fight; because only by fighting can we justify the principles for which we fight. If we hold our principles as being not worth fighting for, the new civilization will be theirs, and we will be no more."

"What about that principle of forgiveness?" she asked.

"Forgiveness, in fact, does not enter into the consideration at all. We must fight, not because we hate Germany but because we love certain principles which Germany is endeavoring to overthrow. The impulse must be love, not hate."

"She had turned and faced him while she spoke, and he felt himself strangely carried away by the earnestness of her argument. What a wonderful woman she was! And as he looked at her he again thought of Irene, and suddenly he felt himself engulfed in a great tenderness, and he knew that even now he loved her."

"What am I to do?" he said. "What am I to do?"

"In the darkness of her own shadow she set her teeth for that answer. 'I am to the crowd and the self-renunciation and it strained every fiber of her resolution.'

"You had better go overseas and enlist in England," she said to him. "What about her nails were biting her palms. 'You will get quicker action that way. And when you come back you must see Irene, and you must learn from your own heart whether you really loved her or not. And if you find that you did not, then—then you will be free to—to—to think of any other woman,'"

"I am afraid I shall never care to think of any other woman," he answered, "except you. But some way you're different. Don't think of me as a woman, you know. I'm really, in a way, I can't explain it Edith, but you're something more—something better than all that."

He had sprung to his feet. "Edith, I can never thank you enough for what you have said to me tonight. You have put some spirit back into my body. I am going to follow your advice. There's a train east in two hours and I'm going on it. Fortunately my property, or most of it, has been dissolved the way it came."

"She moved toward him with extended hand. 'Goodbye, Dave,' she said."

"He held her hand fast in his. 'Goodbye, Edith,' he said. 'I can never repay—all you have been to me. It may sound foolish to you after all I have said, but I sometimes wonder if I—I had not met Irene, if I—' He paused and went hot with embarrassment. 'What would she think of him? An hour ago he had been ready to kill or be killed in grief over his frustrated love, and already he was practically making love to her. Had he brought her to his room for this? What a hypocrite he would be!'"

"Forgive me, Edith," he said, as he released her. "I am not quite myself. I hold you in very high respect as one of God's good women. Goodbye!"

TEMPERANCE LESSON (World's Temperance Sunday)

The Rechabites were the oldest temperance society history knows anything about. Theirs is the story of a three-thousand year old total abstinence pledge. They were a nomad tribe, Kenites, descendants of Midian and thus related to the Jews. One branch of the family in the time of Elijah, and perhaps through his influence, moved into the territory of the Northern Kingdom. Its chief, Jozabab, was surprised at the wide spread corruption of Israel under the rule of Jezebel and Ahab. In protest against it he went to the opposite extreme of total prohibition. He only drinking of intoxicating liquors, but even of planting vineyards. To save his people from luxury and its enervating passions he went even farther to pledge them against building houses and to continue their custom of living in tents forever. To these he added they had been true for two centuries and a half when they were driven into Jerusalem by the Assyrians. He took them one day into a spacious and well-known room of the temple, which in origin had been the place of the courts, and that people standing in the later could easily and plainly see what was transpiring within."

THE WISHING PLANE

Of course, when Signor Angelo, leaving the hotel early the next morning, noticed an evil-looking man peering at him from behind one of the big trees on the hotel lawn, he decided in an instant that it was one of the band of kidnapers. Acting as though he wanted to talk with someone on the opposite side of the lawn, he turned suddenly and walked across the grass to a point near the tree. When the man saw Signor Angelo approaching the tree he started away and ran for the roadway. As he ran he turned his head and looked almost directly at Signor Angelo, who recognized him as one of the band of criminals he had hoped break up.

"That fellow is one of the kidnapers, too, I'm sure," said Signor Angelo to himself. "I'll just follow him and find out where he meets the other members of the gang."

Now this was just what the kidnapers hoped Signor Angelo would do, so everything was working out as they had planned—so far. But Signor Angelo, from the window of his room in the hotel had seen Signor Angelo start down the walk, and he noticed the man dart from the hotel and then had seen Signor Angelo start after him.

Realizing that Signor Angelo probably suspected the man to be one of the kidnapers, Captain Brave spoke quickly to Lady and then rushed down the stairs and out of the hotel. Just in time to catch a glimpse of Signor Angelo disappearing around the next corner of the street. The captain rushed down the stairs and as he neared the hotel he saw Signor Angelo hiding behind a tree, watching for the next move of the kidnapers, who was making believe that he wanted to talk with Signor Angelo. Captain Brave hurried to Signor Angelo's side and said: "I saw it all from the window. Do you think he is one of the band?"

"I'm positive," said Signor Angelo. "If we can only follow this fellow long enough he will try eventually to reach some of the kidnapers, to get help. Then we can get some real trace of the children. I'm sure."

And so the two men followed the kidnapper, keeping out of sight as possible as they could. He would think he had slipped away from them. The chase led them a long way through the city and finally to the edge of the city, high up on the hillside, away from the shore of the bay—where Jack and Jane were being held.

At last, when Signor Angelo and Captain Brave, from behind a clump of bushes, saw the man slip into a darkened house they were sure they had found the place where all the kidnapers were living. Some of the kidnapers were watching the house. They didn't see a curtain in the house move in all this time and when they saw another man slip into the house by climbing over a high fence separating it from the house next door. An hour later another man entered the same way.

"This is their headquarters, I'm sure," said Signor Angelo. "I'll remain here and you hurry back to the city and get the police to help us water the house. When the rest of the band arrives we'll break in the door and take them all. If the children are here, they will be hidden."

Captain Brave left as soon as he could, slipping along from tree to tree until he was a block or so away from the house. In his haste to get police help he failed to see two more members of the band, who had watched him and Signor Angelo and another house nearby. He left that building and walk after him.

GREAT LIGHTWEIGHT FIGHT IN MILWAUKEE

Milwaukee, Oct. 31.—Milwaukee and visitors will sit up and take some boxing nourishment tonight when John Dundee and Willie Jackson, two real lightweights, both in ability and poundage, bounce out of the ring for the first round windup of Otto Borcher's show in the Auditorium arena.

Dundee will be the best bouncer, as he is his style, but as will have to be careful about not bouncing back on his opponent, something that Jackson's right fist caused him to do on his last fight.

This is one match with a pure light weight flavor, for the rivals are to make 125 at 3 o'clock and neither of them will be even that heavy. Lawfender is about the only other good pastime among the lightweights who does not seem to be in when the 133 pound limit is mentioned.

Leonard has been openly accused these many months of being a waterweight, but Benny, being champion, goes serenely on his way with the remark that the lightweight limit is whatever the lightweight champion says it is. Which is exactly the case, no matter how much his rivals and the scribes howl about it. Any time Leonard gets ready to defend his laurels over a distance and to a decision, he'll name the weight, and if it is as high as 135 several hours before fight time it will be all right with the public.

N. G. CAMP TO BE GIGANTIC REUNION

Madison, Oct. 31.—If enough tentage and equipment can be obtained, the 1920 ex-servicemen of the Wisconsin national guard promises to take the form of a gigantic reunion of all the men of the old guard who assembled at Camp Douglas in the summer months of 1917 preparatory to service in the world war. This is one of the inducements for enlistment by former guardsmen in the companies now forming in various cities of the state for the new Wisconsin national guard.

Adjutant General Orlando Holway has until January 20, 1920, to offer any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine, who saw six months of government service in the war, enlistment for one year without physical examination. From present indications at least two thirds of the new companies will have more than a 70 percent membership of this class of recruits.

The plan is to start the reunion camps immediately after the Fourth of July. If sufficient equipment can be obtained the entire guard as organized will be in camp at one time, if not they will go by regiments for two weeks' camp, at regular pay.

STUDENTS PLAN BIG TIME IF WISCONSIN TROUNCES GOPHERS

Madison, Oct. 31.—Rain or shine, Wisconsin and Minnesota will fight it out at Camp Randall Saturday afternoon, according to Coach Richards. The three weeks of secret practice has developed some tall surprises for the Gophers. The famed Minnesota shift will be met with counter attacks and trick plays not exhibited to the public except at the rain delayed Thursday practice before a handful of drenched spectators.

Saturday's game will be the biggest of the season. It is the annual homecoming game when alumni from the four points of the compass gather at Madison. The Latin quarter will be a riot of color in honor of the returned grads, with university insignia on every acrobatic and fraternity house, and with colored lights at night.

Following the game, if the Badgers win, a bonfire will blaze on lower campus and a torchlight parade will recall to the public except at the rain delayed Thursday practice before a handful of drenched spectators.

The visiting alumni will number 5,000, according to estimates from figures of ticket sales and rooms engaged.

The Badgers are confident, but wary. Though Minnesota is out of the running by previous defeat, Coach Richards does not hold the visitors lightly. The Gophers are stronger for Saturday than at any previous game this season. The aggregation is strengthened by the return of three stars who were kept out by injuries. The invaders will reach Madison with a united front, the team being complete for the first time.

Every effort is being bent to exert all-power in adding the Gopher scalp to the Badger belt.

Bob Martin Cancels Bout With Smith For Nov. 11

Akron, O., Oct. 31.—Bob Martin's bout with Ray Smith, scheduled for Camp Curtis Armistice day, Nov. 11, has been canceled here on Thursday by Martin's manager, Jimmy Bronson.

The condition of the A. E. F. champion's right hand, injured in the bout here with Joe Bonds Tuesday night, was given as the reason for cancellation.

Leads Badger Squad Against Minnesota

CAPT. CHARLES CARPENTER

To "Chuck" Carpenter has fallen the honor of leading the Badgers in their big game against Minnesota at Madison tomorrow. His stone wall defensive tactics and his brilliant attacking ability make him the most valuable man in Wisconsin's line. As a center, he is steady and accurate with his passes and is making a strong bid for a berth on the all-conference team.

Capt. Carpenter is well known to Janesville football fans who have watched his playing on the Badger gridiron before.

In the game against Illinois last Saturday he was the individual star on defense. He is expected to shine again in the line in the bitter combat tomorrow.

Owen Jerry Van Housen claims to be the champion bean grower of Clark county. He is exhibiting to his friends and Australian bean he grew from seed obtained in Chicago. The bean is solid meat, also through weighs six pounds, and will be cooked in a wash boiler, making five to six meals for an average family.

ROBBINS AVERAGES 214 IN "FISH" GAME

Richards' Goldfish showed brilliant form in their first game of the season last night, racking up a total of 2,799 pins for a 197-pin victory over the cracking Beloit Fairies at the West Side alleys. The funny five hit over the 900 mark in all three games. Robbins was the individual star of the evening with scores of 233, 210, and 196 for an average of 214, the best average in Janesville this year.

The Haymakers nosed out a win over the Janesville Delivery company by 64 pins. Riley hit 169 for high score.

DEMPSEY-MEEHAN BOUT DEC. 8, CLAIM

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 31.—Willie Meehan claimed today he has received a telegram from Dave MacIntyre, Newark N. J. promoter, saying details for an 8-round bout between himself and Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, at Newark on December 8 had been arranged.

Zupke Will Present Changed Team Tomorrow

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Urbana, Oct. 31.—That a changed Illinois lineup will confront the Maroons at the homecoming game tomorrow seems certain. Coach Zupke has been trying out many new candidates and it looks as though several of the regulars would be displaced. Smith, at end, Fitty, at tackle, Loveloy at quarter and Applegate at guard, are likely to start against Chicago.

COACH STAGG, CRIPPLED, DIRECTS GRID TEAM FROM AUTO

Coach Alonzo Stagg has introduced a novelty into football coaching—or perhaps we ought to say his friends have. When the grid season opened Stagg was crippled with neuritis that he was unable even to hobble back and forth on the field. A few grads chipped in and purchased Stagg an electric coupe. Had it painted maroon 'n everything. Now the veteran instructor dashes up and down the field in the coupe, calling out his orders from one of the windows. Chicago's coaching staff seems to be crippled all around. Orville Page, Pease, former Chicago star and now Stagg's assistant, injured his leg early in the fall practice and has to hobble about on crutches.

SPORT SNAP-SHOTS

BY JACK KEENE.

The New York Giants hit ten points better this season against the pitchers who made the Cincinnati Reds the monarchs of the baseball world than did the Chicago White Sox who attempted to interrupt the momentum of the Moran machine, according to an eastern statistician. The McGrawites battled against Elmer Walker, Russell and Harry Saltee, and Roy Mitchell—on thirty-three occasions and located them for nine thumps and four tallies, a resultant percentage of 250. In all the games the National league's second placers batted 604 times for sixty-three runs, 154 hits and an average of 235.

The Little Napoleon forbade his athletes to dally with the ancient and honorable game of golf during the playing season, yet an expert golfer—Arnold Stutz, Holy Cross graduate—did better against Cincinnati's Big Six (or at least two of the Big Six, Walter Ruether and Harry Saltee) than any of the players on the payroll of the National Exhibition Company.

Arnold played right field in the last series at Redland field this year and made four singles and a triple in seven times at bat. His average was 7.14.

The theory that pitchers cannot hit was dealt a blow by Artie Nehf and Ruben Benton. McGraw's $45,000 investment got one blow in the games with the new-champions. Benton tore off six. The former Brave hit 500 in the series with the Reds, the one time Red 333. The Polo grounds on July 23 with a homer in the third inning off Harry Saltee, when two Giants were on the bases, the score of this game being 6 to 1.

No McGraw regular compiled a .300 average against the Red pitchers this season. Ross Young, approaching nearest to the mark with .292. Lew McCarty hit .273, Benny Kauff .260, Hal Chase .254, George Burns and Helme Zimmerman .250, Larry Doyle .243, Arthur Fletcher .240, Frank Frisch .200, Jess Barnes .182, George Gelly .167, Frank Snyder .118, Fred Tohy .100 and Miguel Gonzalez .083. Cecil Causey, Earl Smith, Jess Winters, Jean Dubus, Al Baird, Phil Douglas, Lee King, Pol Peritt, Ferdie Schupp, Otto Bowen and Joe Oeschger hit nothing at all.

Moran's moundsmen handed out thirty-eight passes to the Giants this year, but didn't walk any of the pitchers. George Burns drew twelve of the gifts, Ross Young six, Larry Doyle six, Benny Kauff three, Helme Zimmerman three, Lew McCarty two, Frank Frisch two, Hal Chase one, Arthur Fletcher one, Frank Snyder one and Mike Gonzales one.

Eller & Co. collected fifty-two strikeouts from the team that they had to eliminate in order to reach Pennsylvania, Young being a victim on eleven occasions, Chase on seven, Doyle on six, Burns on five, Zimmerman on four, Kauff on four, Gonzales on three, King twice, Fletcher twice.

MERRILL HOT AFTER H. S. CHAMPIONSHIP

By JACK KEENE.

Merrill, Oct. 31.—Local football enthusiasts are amused at Antigo's claim to the state high school football championship. After being defeated 45 to 0 by Merrill high school, it seems idle for Antigo to place any claim on the state title.

Merrill has defeated Rhinelander 53 to 0, Antigo 46 to 0, Marshfield 75 to 0, and Stevens Point 3 to 0. Merrill also claims an unfinished game played with Grand Rapids. In this game Merrill made an onside kick which placed the locals in the lead, and the referee allowed the play. The Grand Rapids crowd, unfamiliar with this play, rushed onto the field protesting vigorously, and to satisfy them the referee said he would omit the play and leave the decision to the rules board. The Merrill team protested and the referee declared the game ended.

An unfinished game can not be awarded to anybody, but Merrill claims that the score stood in favor of Merrill when the dispute arose. The game was won for Wausau over Marshfield, and also was decisive in several other games this season.

Merrill also notes the claim of Appleton High and calls attention to the fact that it is in the race for the state championship.

GRAIN

Chicago Review.
Chicago, Oct. 31.—Highest prices of any yet in the last six weeks were reached today in the corn market.
Sentiment was very bullish in some quarters, especially regarding the December delivery. Wet weather and the meagerness of the car supply counted as the chief factors. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's high to 3¢ higher, with December $1.27 1/2 to $1.28 1/2, and May $1.24 1/2 to $1.25 1/2, were followed by something of a setback from initial top figures.
Oats were slightly firmer with corn.

"Some Chicken!"

"Now that you have seen her,
what do you think of your new sister?"
she asked.
"Precisely
what I had expected," said
Spice coldly.
"Some chicken!"

After opening a shade to 3/4¢ higher, including December at 71 1/2¢ to 71 1/4¢, the market continued to harden.
Provisions reflected the upward tilt of cereals. Trade, though, was light.
Strength in other commodities and in the stock market tended later to sustain corn values, but heavy profit-taking sales led to a temporary setback in the May delivery. Prices closed unsettled, 3/4¢ not lower to an advance of 3/4¢, with December $1.25 1/2 to $1.28 1/2 and May $1.23 1/2 to $1.24 1/2.

R. C. HOME SERVICE TO BENEFIT FROM THIRD ROLL CALL FUND

What the Red Cross has done for the soldiers and soldiers' families during the war is what the new Red Cross, born of peace, will do for the home in the future.

Home service work is the keynote of the appeal of the Red Cross in its third roll call for one dollar memberships, to be voted over the nation from Nov. 2-11. "All you need is a heart and a dollar" is the slogan of the drive.

One hundred and fifty women will launch the intensive canvass in this city at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Materials have been distributed to the team captains from the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce today.

Half of Fund For Janesville. Fifty cents of every dollar contributed will be kept in Janesville. This is the suggested plan to be made by the campaigners.

The home service department of the Red Cross in this city expended $122 last year in the care of the service men and their families, according to the report of Miss Mabel Shumway, executive secretary.

One 14-year old boy, who had a brother in the service was given hospital care by this department for 20 weeks, at an expense of about $13. Again, a soldier's wife who was able to get along when she could work, was taken sick. She appealed to the Red Cross for help with the result that $159 were spent in caring for her.

Family Given Allowance. A husband who had been drafted for army service came drastically to the Red Cross with his tale of woe. He had a wife and two small children who would be left alone without means of support. He had to go to camp next day. A weekly allowance was given to the family for 12 weeks by the Red Cross until the soldier's allotment was received.
